At Cupid's Court.

One very pretty wedding took place in the city during the past week, which was that of Miss Elizabeth Davis and Mr. Arthur Peters. The ceremony was performed Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's mother and was witnessed by a large number of the friends of the bride and groom. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Beatrice Davis, as maid of honor and by Miss Myra Sowles and Miss Egan as bridesmaids. Mr. Jesse Smith was the best man. A remarkably fine musical program was rendered, the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" being sung most beautifully by Mrs. Martha Boyle King. A trio composed of Professor Pederson, Mr. William Davis and Mr. Arthur Pederson furnished the remainder of the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters left on the late train for a short wedding journey. They will be at home after Dec. 1 at 412 East Third South street.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Leeds Kerr and Mr. John Henry King Burghwin, which took place Wednesday at Mare Island navy yard, was of interest to a number of Salt Lakeers, who had met Miss Kerr during her visits to this city. The wedding took place at 2 o'clock in the day and was attended by a large gathering, the friends of the bride and her brother, Paymaster Kerr, who is stationed at the navy yard. The bride was attended by Miss Evelyn Shepard of Oakland as maid of honor and by the Misses Phelps and Bacon as bridesmaids. Dr. Harry Sherman of San Francisco was the best man, and the ushers were Mr. Vail Bakewell of Oakland, Mr. Elmer and Mr. David Porter of the army and Mr. Kenneth Kerr of Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Burghwin will visit in this city on their way east and later will make their home in Pittsburg, Pa.

Miss Lucy Dean Wardrop and Mr. J. Howard Garrett were married in the Salt Lake temple last Thursday at high noon by President Joseph F. Smith. A very pretty reception was given at the bride's home in the evening from 8 to 11. Over 100 friends and relatives were present with expressions of good will and best wishes for the future happiness of the newly married couple, and a shower of beautiful presents. The rooms were prettily decorated with white and pink chrysanthemums and chrysanthemums. The dining room was particularly well arranged. In the center of the room was a large square table over which was draped a canopy of ribbons to each corner of the table, and from the center of the drapery hung a bell shaped light. Round the table were arranged smaller tables, accommodating four guests each. A very nice supper was served by Franklin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. John Wardrop, vice president of the Salt Lake Building & Manufacturing Company of this city, and the bridegroom is connected with the Salt Lake Business college. Both are popular young people.

A wedding reception was given for Miss Rose Guiver and Mr. Charles Whitman at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday evening. The rooms were artistically decorated with white and pink chrysanthemums and chrysanthemums. In one corner of the parlor was a pretty bouquet of the flowers, under which stood the bride, while Bishop Maxwell performed the ceremony. After receiving best wishes and congratulations the bride and groom left for the dining room. The tables were beautifully decorated with the flowers and snail and a delicious supper was served by all. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitman will be at home to their friends at 747 West First South.

The marriage is announced of Miss Tillie Matison of Brigham City to Mr. Joseph P. Dover of Salt Lake. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Brigham City. Mr. and Mrs. Dover will make their home in Salt Lake.
